HISTORY OF SOCIETY OF SISTERS OF ST.ANNE-MADRAS

Founding of the Society of Sisters of St. Anne - Madras

The origin of our Congregation can be traced back to the 19th century in the State of Tamil Nadu, India. It was founded by a lay woman named Thatipathri Gnanamma, who hailed from Phirangipuram, a village in Guntur District, in Andhra Pradesh, South India. She was given in marriage to Innaiah, the catechist of Phirangipuram. This pious couple was blessed with five sons. Unfortunately, she became a widow at the early age of 37 years. Left all alone with five boys to bring up, she put her trust in the Divine Providence and raised her children in strong Christian faith. Four of her sons became priests and one became a lay person. Freed from all the family commitments, Gnanamma moved to a village called Kilacheri, 40 km, from Chennai and settled down there, although she had no acquaintances in that place. Thus, the infinite wisdom of God led her steps to the cradle, the Bethlehem of the new Congregation.

During her time, education of young girls was an unimaginable dream. Gnanamma was constantly in touch with the illiterate girls in the locality and identified education as a principal means of empowering them. Fr.Arokianadar, Parish Priest of Kilacheri, helped her to reflect on these thoughts and go ahead with starting a school for girls in Kilacheri. To realize this vision, she started a school exclusively for girls in 1863. Inspired by the committed service to the cause of women's education, two young girls requested Mother Gnanamma to let them help her in her great work and expressed their desire to do so as nuns.

Mother Gnanamma, who was anxious to ensure that her work should continue, accepted their request and sent them to be formed at St.Anne's Novitiate of the Good Shepherd Congregation in Bellary. After their initial formation, on 04.10.1874, the two girls became sisters and thus a religious Congregation for women known as "Sisters of St.Anne - Madras" was born. Our Congregation was founded out of the need for empowering women through education. The life of Mother Gnanamma was other-oriented and dedicated to the welfare of others. The noble qualities of our Foundress exhort us to commit ourselves to the cause of uplifting the life of the less privileged in society.

ANNITES' MISSION OF EDUCATION

Following the words of our Foundress Thatipathri Gnanamma, “the sisters of St. Anne learn to live as women of service and translate the love of God into love of fellow human beings”. The divine energy within her was transformed over time and she thereby identified opportunities and explored possible solutions for the illiterate women of the yester years.

Her commitment, passion and perseverance still enable us to walk through untrodden paths and higher levels of development. She was sure of her vision and her insight is still very active in us. As a result, the society of St. Anne has given way to a number of schools and colleges all over India.

Our primary apostolate is Education. Through this apostolate, we create an atmosphere in educational institutions that is conducive to the imparting of Gospel Values to pupils. We give a central place for value based education in the curriculum, and impart it with zeal and enthusiasm.

Besides imparting education that will facilitate the development of the personality of our pupils, we also strive to inculcate in them honesty and a sense of responsibility.
